Each May Gulgong hosts the Gulgong Prince of Wales Eisteddfod. Gulgong is a New South Wales gold rush town which is located approximately 300km North West of Sydney and 30km from Mudgee.

The Gulgong Prince of Wales Eisteddfod was started by Gulgong Musical and Dramatic Society (MADS) in 1980. Gulgong MADS are an active performing group who work together to maintain the historical Prince of Wales Opera House located in Mayne Street Gulgong. This building is the oldest working Opera House in the southern hemisphere!

Gulgong MADS developed the Eisteddfod as a suitable event to be held in their beautiful, historic Gulgong Prince of Wales Opera House, to provide an opportunity for young people especially to delight in the creative arts.

Over the decades, The Gulgong Prince of Wales Eisteddfod has expanded and become an important cultural event for Gulgong and the Central West. The Eisteddfod has grown so much it is now held at two locations: The Gulgong Prince of Wales Opera House and the Gulgong Memorial Hall.

The Eisteddfod is a subsidiary of Gulgong MADS. Our main aim is to provide opportunities for students of Music, Dance and Speech to set themselves goals and perform in front of an audience and adjudicator. While most of the classes are aimed at school-age children, there are opportunities for adults to participate in Music choirs, bands, duets, open solos and as accompanists. Profits from the Eisteddfod go towards maintaining the Gulgong Prince of Wales Opera House.

The Gulgong Prince of Wales Eisteddfod is run by a small sub-committee with Gulgong MADS continued support. The Eisteddfod committee would like to thank MADS for supporting this annual showcase of young talent.

RULES GOVERNING COMPETITION

Failure to comply with any of the following rules and conditions may involve disqualification and withholding of prizes. The decision of the Committee in all questions of dispute arising out of, or not provided for by, these Rules and Conditions shall be final. All entries are received subject to this decision, which shall not be subject to any appeals by law, as such could be contrary to the spirit of friendly competition upon which the Eisteddfod is based.

Bad language and bad sportsmanship by entrants, their relatives or friends will not be tolerated and offenders will be asked to leave the venue. Entrants related to or associated with offenders may be disqualified.

1. Venues - Music will be held at the Prince of Wales Opera House, Mayne Street, Gulgong. Choirs and some instrumental groups will be held at the Memorial Hall, Herbert Street, Gulgong.
2. Amateurs - All competitions are intended for amateurs only, except for those listed in the syllabus as being open to professionals as well. Where group classes are open to professionals, no more than 50% of the group may be professionals. An amateur is one who does not, or has not, obtained his or her living by performing or teaching that branch which is subject to competition.
3. Entries - Close on the closing dates and times listed. Competitors should enter online at <http://www.comps-online.com.au>. An Administration Fee of $4.50 will apply to each invoice issued from Comps-Online. No entry will be accepted from any person who is or was, during the six months preceding the end of the Eisteddfod, taught or coached by the Adjudicator for that Section. A breach of this rule will result in disqualification.
4. Cancellations / Alterations - The Committee reserves the right to cancel a class if there are fewer than three entries or to combine it with the next age group. Prize money in any class may be lowered or not awarded if there are fewer than 4 entries or if the standard of performance is not adequate. The number of places awarded in a class may also be reduced according to the number of entrants. The Committee has the right to amend the program at any time, to appoint a substitute adjudicator, to divide or couple any class or award, and/or to alter competition times.

5. Prizes - Senior prizes and all Championships will be awarded on the following scale:

One to three entries in class	1 st prize
Four to five entries	1 st & 2 nd prize
Six or more entries	1 st , 2 nd & 3 rd prize

Where classes are combined, the prizes given are those applicable for the class of the oldest competitor or highest grade. If a particular person is the sole competitor in a number of classes, a certificate may be the only prize awarded.
6. Entrants - Must make themselves available for the full session (morning, afternoon or night) to allow for any necessary changes. Entrants must be ready to perform at least 15 minutes before class entered is due to commence.
7. Order of Competition - Competitors shall compete in the order in which their names appear on the official program, subject to any variation the Committee may deem necessary. In exceptional circumstances, out of class performance may be permitted, at the discretion of the convenor and the adjudicator. The competitor may not be eligible for a place or prize at the adjudicator's discretion, but will receive an adjudication report.
8. Upon Arrival - ALL competitors must report to the session clerk on arrival and hand in relevant Adjudicator copies of sheet music. Copies of Music items are also to be handed in where numerous competitors are playing from the same book. Also, see Rule 31.
9. Age / Grade Limit - The competitor's age or grade level is recognized as at the 1st May each year. Where competitors of different ages compete in duets or groups, the age limit for entry to that class will be based on the age of the oldest competitor. The Committee reserves the right to call upon any competitor or their teacher to furnish at the competitor's own expense, proof of age, and to withhold any prizes until such proof has been obtained.
10. Open - Means there is no age restriction.
11. Restricted - means not having won a first place in that discipline at any eisteddfod in the previous two years up until the closing date of entries.
12. Item Choice i) Competitors must hand to the session clerk a copy of the sheet music to be performed for the Adjudicator. Competitors may be disqualified if they do not comply with this rule. The exception is the pop/ country Vocal class, where a chord chart & lyrics will be accepted.
Clearly mark copy with class number, competitor number and the title if applicable, on the top right corner. Must be on A4 paper. Do not write your name. Entry slips will not be sent out. The committee accepts no responsibility for loss of papers. It is the responsibility of the competitor to collect original music and reports at the conclusion of the session. Photocopies will not be returned.
 - ii) All items are OWN CHOICE; that is, there are no set works.
 - iii) There is a 10 minute time limit in every class except where otherwise stated.
 - iv) Vocal classes: the use of microphones is not permitted, except in Popular and Country & Western classes, but own equipment must be supplied.
 - v) Audio files MUST be emailed to lesterwatt@bigpond.com They will be played by the tech person through the sound system at both the Opera House and Memorial Hall. Competitors are to use live accompaniment or digital backing tracks, NOT CD's. Competitors will receive instructions on how to upload their files early in May.

- 13. Adjudicators - The Adjudicator reserves the right to terminate a performance at any stage. The Adjudicator's decision is final unless a protest is lodged under Rule 19, in which case the Committee's decision is final. The Adjudicator also reserves the right to vary the allocation of prizes within a class, or if a satisfactory standard not be reached, to reduce or withdraw prizes. No competitor, teacher, parent or relative of a competitor may approach the adjudicator; any communication must be through the Session Convenor or Scribe.
- 14. Adjudicators' Reports - These will be available free of charge after adjudication of the class, and may be obtained from the clerks' desk. They will not be forwarded afterwards.
- 15. Prompting - No prompting or assistance of any kind may be given to any competitor, except from the Adjudicator. This includes adult conductors singing with children's choirs. Special Needs groups are exempt. No teacher or parent shall be allowed on the stage area with a competitor, other than a conductor or accompanist during a performance (Special Needs groups exempt). Disregarding this rule will result in disqualification of the competitor.
- 16. Rehearsals - Once a section has commenced, no rehearsals may be held in the Prince of Wales Opera House or the Memorial Hall. A rehearsal is defined as any form of conducted performance, or planned performance, or any part of performance that exceeds one minute. Bands are allowed one minute for tuning and sound check.
- 17. Duplication of items - No competitor may compete more than once in any solo class. The exception is where the committee has combined two classes a particular competitor has entered. No competitor may render the same item in more than one class, except where otherwise stated. No solo or duet competitor may render the same item with which he or she has won 1st prize in the Gulgong Prince of Wales Eisteddfod in the previous year.
- 18. Minimum Props - Only those props required to enhance the performance are permitted. These must be able to be carried on stage quickly. Props must not obstruct passageways and must be removed from the backstage area as soon as possible after the performance.
Bands are to bring their own equipment including music stands.
- 19. Protests - Any protests must be lodged verbally to the Session Convenor or the rostered Committee Member within ten minutes of the adjudicator's decision. A written explanation outlining the reasons for the protest must be submitted before the end of the Session, accompanied by a deposit of $30. The protest will be decided by an ad hoc Protest Committee of a minimum of three, comprising the Session Convenor and two or more Eisteddfod Committee members depending on availability. Their decision will be final. Should the protest be upheld, the deposit will be refunded. Verbal grievances or complaints to individual committee members or eisteddfod workers are not in the spirit of Eisteddfod competition. They will not be tolerated and could lead to exclusion from any further participation in the Eisteddfod.

- 20. Royalties - Entrants are responsible for any royalty payments.
- 21. Admission - Competitors and accompanists will be admitted free to the hall only in sessions where they are actually competing.
- 22. Rules - Please read the rules carefully and check all entries as no alterations can be made once the program has been printed. We recommend you print a copy of your entry to verify the details are correct. If you realise you have made an error in your entry, contact the Music Convenor as soon as possible.
- 23. Private Video Recording and Photography - It is the policy of the Gulgong Prince of Wales Eisteddfod Committee that there is no private still photography or image recording of any performance, except by a parent in solo classes in the Music section.
- 24. Duets - If duets are to be accompanied, please specify on Adjudicator's copy of music, which instrument is the accompaniment. The names of all competitors in duets must be listed. See Rule 31.
- 25. Small School - For the purpose of this Eisteddfod a 'small school' is defined as having a school population up to 160 students.
- 26. Own Risk - All competitors perform at their own risk and the Gulgong Eisteddfod Committee is unable to accept any responsibility for performers, their equipment and/or personal belongings.
- 27. Performance Standard - The Gulgong Eisteddfod aims for a high standard of dress, program material and presentation. Adjudicators may take these aspects into account when making their decisions.
- 28. Responsibility of Syllabus and Program - While every care is taken in compiling the syllabus and programs, the Committee will not be responsible for any omissions, alterations or errors that may occur. The entrant is responsible for ensuring their entry is correct.
- 29. Acceptance of Rules & Conditions - All entries are received according to the conditions and rules of the Gulgong Eisteddfod Committee as stated above.
- 30. Copyright Requirements - The Law of Copyright applies to all sections of the Music Eisteddfod. It is the responsibility of each competitor, teacher & school to adhere to the Act. Competitors are responsible for all royalty and copyright payments and liabilities (if any). Any music copied from copyright is the responsibility of the competitor and not the Eisteddfod.
All competitors are to use original or a licensed copy of their music. The ONE MUSIC APRA/AMCOS form is on the website for you to print out and complete prior to the event day. Only ONE form is required per competitor/family/school. All photocopies will be destroyed at the conclusion of the session.

- 31. Accompaniment - There is a list of accompanists on page 3; however individual competitors may provide their own. The accompaniment must be of a different instrument family. There are to be NO VOCALS ON BACKING TRACKS in any solo, ensemble or choir item in Vocal classes.
- 32. A digital backing track may be used. Backing tracks must be sent to the eisteddfod prior to the commencement of competition. Competitors who answer 'yes' to the question regarding backing tracks when entering, will be notified on what is expected.
- 33. The number of children in school choirs (at the Memorial Hall) is 10- 50 singers. At the Opera House choirs should consist of 10-30 singers.
- 34. Performance Etiquette - Good sportsmanship is expected from all competitors and audience at all times. There must be no applause, whistling, stamping of feet etc. before or during a performance. Applause and encouragement are to be reserved for the end of a performance.
- 35. Gala Concert Selection – The committee selects competitors to perform at the Gala Concert at their own discretion with preference given to those who have placed in a number of classes.
