OUR TRADITION

The Abermain Eisteddfod is the longest running eisteddfod of its kind in NSW. It was established circa 1917, and in 1965 it grew to be the largest eisteddfod in NSW, even rivalling the Sydney Eisteddfod.

Historically, the Abermain Eisteddfod holds immense significance in the hearts and minds of so many local dances. It has offered a platform for dancers to showcase their talents, gain constructive and professional feedback and most importantly opens minds to the beauty and possibilities of dance.

The Abermain Eisteddfod is not for profit and operated by a dedicated committee of volunteers.

All prize money is raised or donated by local families and businesses to ensure the 'community' tradition continues.

OUR VENUE

Performing Arts & Culture Centre Cessnock (PACC), 198-202 Vincent Street Cessnock 2325

The PACC is an amazing venue to showcase the competitors' talents. A 466-seat theatre to cater for the masses with the charm of feeling like an intimate setting for the smaller numbers. Professional quality sound system, lighting and ample change areas – simply put, there is nowhere better!

A large stage – 8 metres wide x 6 metres deep (with a further 3 metre 'apron' at the front of stage) with professional quality Tarkett flooring.
